

WKSC Policy on Betting

Betting, wagering, gambling or participation in any other form of financial speculation in respect of the outcome of a football match is strictly prohibited for Players, Referees and Club Officials.

Betting or wagering on a match that you or your team is involved in creates a conflict of interest which compromises the integrity of football. Breaching any of the guidelines contained herein may result in a fine, lifetime ban from football, or even being subject of a criminal investigation and / or prosecution.

To all Players, Referees and Club Officials:

1. You are prohibited from betting, wagering or participating in any other form of financial speculation in relation to:
 - a) any match you or your team is involved in; or
 - b) any other games within football.
